HOLMAN'S
Liver and Stomach Pad
Cures without Medicine.

An efficacious remedy for all diseases having their origin in a torpid liver and diseased stomach, has been discovered in the Holman Liver Pad. The inventor of this boon to suffering humanity was himself a victim of chronic disease, and having tried medicines in vain, conceived the idea of an external remedy. The Pad applied immediately over the vitals and the centre of the nervous system, absorbs all poisons and diffuses a vegetable tonic throughout the entire system through the pores and by means of the circulation. The torpidity of the liver is thus removed, the tone of the stomach restored, and the organs resume their wonted functions. Finding that the principle worked successfully in his own case, the discovery was made public, and thousands have since tried it with the most beneficial results. The names of a large number of well known citizens in all parts of the country, who owe their restoration to health to the Liver Pad, attest the genuineness of this great invention. It requires no internal medicines; it is simple, painless, and rapid in its operations, applicable to children as well as adults of both sexes, and in case there should be no disease in the system, remains passive, doing no harm. Persons who are incredulous as to the value of this Pad, will do well to send for a pamphlet to the Agency.

CORDOVA GOLD MINES.

Mr Alberdi's report on the gold mines in Cordoba is an official paper of high import to the River Plate, since the information which he supplies is not published to further the interests of miners or mining companies, but to enliguten the Government of that province as to its real mineral wealth. In Mr Alberdi's own words, Cordoba must be richer than California, to yield as much gold as it does, under the present slovenly system adopted by the miners.

Some of the largest estancias and country estates in Cordoba belong to Englishmen; proprietors living in London and other parts of the United Kingdom who may be interested in knowing that, according to the Government Inspector of Mines, their lands cover the richest gold veins, and need but a little enterprise and machinery to give up their treasures. As it is impossible to suppose that Mr. Alberdi's report is looked upon as mere hearsay or exaggerated statement, we cannot naturally believe but that there is some truth and foundation for all that he tells about Cordoba and her gold. His description of the gold mines in the district called 'El Patacon,' will be read with interest by many of our readers who have never even seen Cordoba. If there are any Australian or Californian gold miners in Buenos Ayres we do hope they will pay Cordoba a visit, as we badly want to call up some gold mine in the Interior to balance the rest of the Republic with the rich sheep farms of Buenos Ayres.

Mr. Alberdi says that the two slopes of Sierra de la Pumilla, the eastern one forming the valley of Pumilla and the western one extending to the central chain, comprise a vast region crossed in all directions by innumerable gold veins.

It would be a long task to point them out individually and mention the various works and surveys in the district. Some of the veins have yielded great quantities of gold, but it would be a presumption to affirm where the richest district is situated. In all the mineral districts of the globe there is one special privileged spot, and it may be asserted with security that no one has as yet touched the richest district of the Pumilla quartz.

Meanwhile the parts most explored have been those in the vicinity of the Patacon, the Bragada, the Calera, one league south of Sr. Guilmar's establishment, where are situated the Custodia, the California, the Libertad and many other mines, which really do not deserve the name of such, as they are incomplete for superficial sounding. At the present moment the auriferous deposits worked are in the Patacon, six leagues south-east of Loto; although on a very small scale, they give satisfactory results. There are two principal veins; the eastern one runs from south to north, with variable widths, from four to 18 inches, but widening considerably with its depth; it is sundered in various spots, and in all of them has given more or less gold. The western one runs in an equal direction, one half league. Both veins are crossed by numerous layers of quartz, nearly all auriferous.

The matrix of these veins is of white, bluish and rose colored quartz; the gold in shape of nails, grains, leaves, needles, crystallized forming filiments, or in very fine dust, called by the miners 'golden smoke.' The gold is of a fine yellow color, sometimes greyish or blackish, with a metalic shine of iron.

Mr Gil Castro who works these veins follows a capricious system of his own, without any consideration for the rules of the art, nor those of prevision acquired by experience. By economical and limited work he makes a good profit for the time being, but he entirely neglects those works that will make his mine prosperous in the future. Should the metal not exhaust, he proceeds in a very imprudent way; the present works are miserably carried out, and not over four or five metres, and before they reach ten he will be unable to continue working in the same spot. With five peons only he works in five different places alternately. This is a most vicious system, which, although for the present giving good results, will in the end give bad ones.

In the middle of August he had three cajons of mineral with fifteen ounces per cajon of fifty quintals: two cajons had been left aside, because they yielded only three ounces of gold to the cajon, and it would not pay to transport them to the establishment at Taninga. Sometimes quartz has been picked up giving more than twenty ounces to the cajon. The rich mineral is transported to the Trapiche de Taninga, fourteen leagues distant from the mine: the enormous expense of transport is ruinous. The establishment charges fifteen Bolivianos per cajon, and the transport of the mineral costs per cajon from thirteen to fourteen Bolivianos. The machinery that works the quartz is deficient, and a good part of the gold is lost.

Besides the actual works recently begun, Mr. Castro has worked two years at two other veins more to the east, which gave him two cajons of mineral of over twenty ounces—subsequently, lacking cajones, he abandoned the work. The yield of the quartz would have to be fabulous when the mines are so badly and irregularly worked, and the transport so far and so dear, in order to give large profits. Nevertheless, the mineral region is so extensive and the yield so great, that I do not hesitate to say that it not only is the most important auriferous district in the Republic, but can also figure with honour amongst the best auriferous quartz of Australia and California, countries in which the mining industries are the most important.

In order that the Cordoba Mines should give good results, it is indispensable that the works be carried out on a more rational system. The extraction of the mineral on a large scale, subject to the rules of the mining industry, and the necessary machinery conveniently established, are, in my opinion, the prime conditions of profitable results. Space and position are not wanting; fuel abounds everywhere; there is water in abundance alongside the mines, only awaiting the hand of man to surrender its hydraulic power. The nearest curve of the Rio Candelaria is twelve squares from the Patacon; but the most convenient spot for a mining establishment is in the Bragada, which we will describe in our next.

AGRICULTURAL TRAVELS.

(By Eduardo Olivera).

The author has politely favored us with a copy of his work, describing his travelling reminiscences through Europe. It is a threadbare subject for many, as so much has already been written on spots and customs familiar to all; but M. Olivera has embodied in the work so many original views and instructive lectures on the agricultural systems of the several countries, that with increasing interest the pages are read by the lawyer, the farmer and the novel reader.

Many of the author's impressions must date from several years back, as his well-founded criticisms on Baden-Baden gambling are now unnecessary. This little town is certainly one of the most attractive spots in Europe during the summer season, but its prestige greatly suffered when gambling was abolished, and French beauties said farewell to it after the Franco-Prussian war. Still some 40,000 visitors per year pass a pleasant sejour of a month or two round the precincts of the Kursaal and the Alte Schloss, where an old Æolian harp plays to the whistling of the winds.

The remarks on agriculture in Germany are to the point, and M. Olivera reveals the serious study he has made of the matter. The different breeds of animals, their qualities, their changes, value and weight will greatly interest the flock-breeders in the country and make them acquainted with the different European methods of training and crossing animals successfully.

All the towns are minutely described, but poor justice is done to old Antwerp. Antwerp is the most interesting town of Belgium, and the student and the farmer can gather much information as he walks through its streets and its markets. There are always great agricultural fairs held in Antwerp; and if cattle, pigs, horses and potatoes do not interest the æsthetical traveller, he can ascend into the realms of art and admire oil-paintings and antiquities the Louvre would much like to boast of. Every church is a monument, and every house is a museum or picture gallery. The Flemish readers of the book won't relish the criticism on their character, which stamps French levity on them—but it is meant for a compliment. You will never convince an Argentine that there is anything superior to the French.

Heidelberg is well described. Poor Heidelberg, the only three things it boasts of are the big beer barrel, the Schloss and the University. The celebrated Schloss is very fine and very old; many have an exaggerated idea of its size; it is not as large as the Penitentiary. Many of our readers have stood over the gap where the tower fell in under a French powder mine. Melac has acquired a very sad celebrity all along the Rhine.

Mayence and the Rhine occupy many chapters. Who has not ascended the Rhine? Mr Olivera graphically describes the scenery and cultivation on the banks of this fine river. We all know the Godesberg, the excursions to the Siebengeberg, the Drachenfels, and the never-to-be-forgotten Lurlei, with its legend. As the steamer passes the rock one involuntarily sighs, poor Lurlei! who even turned the head of an archbishop.

The history of dirty Koeln is minutely given. The great attraction in Cologne is its Cathedral, the finest structure in Europe. Juan Maria Farina is placarded on all the Eau de Cologne deposits in front. A miniature plan of the Cathedral, beautifully finished, is in one of the shop windows.

The industry of the Dutch nation has greatly attracted the author's notice. All the plains are under a rich cultivation, and the barriers erected against Neptune's element call forth loud praise. Rotterdam, so famed for the cleanliness of its streets and the Zoological Gardens, is nicely described. The remarks on agriculture and the perseverance of the farmer in Holland and Belgium are to the point. If the gaucho only displayed one half of that industry in the culture of the soil, the Pampa would be a garden.

A long account is given of the agricultural machinery at the Paris Exhibition and the trials made with them at Trappes. Mr. Olivera significantly points to the great success of American machinery over that of England and France.

Thus this book rivets the attention of the reader from beginning to end, and gives a great fund of information on subjects that easily escape the attention of travellers who pass through Europe on a pleasure trip, often without the painstaking of judging for themselves of the scenes they see and the customs of the inhabitants they live among. All farmers should buy the work.

LATEST FROM MONTEVIDEO.

(From our own Correspondent.)

April 12th.

No symptoms of invasion are felt for all the reports circulated in your newspapers to the contrary. The only circumstance that would induce people to think that something of that kind was even intended, is the marching of some few soldiers in different directions, as a measure of precaution, no doubt. Colonel Caraballo's very plausible proclamation trying to induce partisans to join him in his wild scheme of invading has not met with any support apparently, the different political parties seeing through the scheme as a too glaring Varela restoration. The Government on the other hand seems to beget the good will of the population fast, owing to some very stringent measures adopted in the administration; the energy it has shewn on the $100,000 lottery affair, which has ended in the resignation of the members of the Committee of the Hospital and Asylums, the appointment of a Committee named to superintend all the houses of charity, the Hospital, the Lunatic Asylum &c. under the supervision of the Minister of Government, in fact, taking the management away from the Junta Economica, or Municipality, and putting it under the control of the said Minister of Government; this has given umbrage to the Municipality and that corps has resigned 'en masse.' The manager of the Lottery Department has also resigned or was asked to do so. It appears now, as far as I can ascertain facts, that the moneys of the Lottery have been invested in paying off old debts as well as the building expenses lately incurred in rebuilding and extending the Hospital buildings, the magnificent Lunatic Asylum and adding new buildings to the Paupers' Asylum, which are still working. The matter is so far cleared up; but it seems that the administration purposely hushed up the fact of their getting hold of the hundred thousand dollars in order to induce creditors to accept an accommodation price for their claims, an act of immorality which should be, if true, condemned energetically. I must, before closing these observations, say that the facts are not ascertained and may not be as I have heard them.

Colonel Latorre has left the city for a short time with leave. Many people insist that he intends leaving the country altogether, but these reports do not seem to bear any weight in the opinion of those who seem to know what is going on in the upper regions. The Colonel may be what some people represent him to be, but he is wanted still very much to keep the country in order and get poor country farmers to hold safe what they have got. A civil war would just now be the ruin of the country, more so than ever owing to the great outlays made in wiring in the properties, and getting good fresh blood into the stock. The country outside is getting on famously, farmers are begining to look ahead for better times and sheep and land are going up fast. Sheep which could have been bought at 80 cents 'al corte' are now worth $1.20 to 1.30 say at least 30 per cent more, and the demand for good land has increased, Cattle are also in good demand, especially for 'invernadas' round about the Montevideo Department, or handy to bring into town, in winter, when the demand for fat cattle will be great this year. Agriculturists are also doing very well with their wheat, which is now worth $6 and upwards per fanega. All the prospects for the coming Spring are excellent for the country districts and peace is what we want above every other Liberator in existence. The city is not going on in a ratio with the prosperity of the country districts, but it seems that business is sound and the outstandings due by the country dealers are fast coming in; and I hear that there are instances where old debts long and hopelesly pending are being paid, to the very agreable surprise of the shopkeepers in town. I am in hopes that we shall see better times next year.

Signor Berro, the ex-Minister of Finance (of the Control Office) has been publishing very energetic articles in the Siglo in defence of his system and denying his participation in any thing connected with the large lottery difficulty; and Signor Wich has also come out in print defending the Control Office and so forth. All very good, no doubt at all about it, but in general people do not seem to 'see it.' Yet it is satisfactory to see that as far as honesty, Signor Berro is all right: his measures may be very obnoxious to the free and easy dispatch at the Custom House, but he intended well, so much is to be deducted from his publications. It is always well to hear all parties on a question of this nature.

We had an amateur bull-fight yesterday and crowds went to see the beautiful performance. It was in benefit of the Public Educational Institution, and I wonder that a body of citizens that profess to educate the people should accept the co-operation of bull-fighters.

Ralph.

OUR PARIS LETTER.

(Our own Correspondent.)

March 12th.

With the departure of Hartmann for merry England, France is free from a trouble, and the Russian gibbet has one subject less. On being liberated, Hartmann enclosed his card to the Russian Ambassador—the politeness of adieu. Prince Orloff was unequal to the task of circumventing the honor of France, by demanding the extradition of one of the Czar's 80 millions of loving subjects, on the charge of blowing up a train, minus the Emperor. That artifice provoked both amusement and disgust. The merit of cracking up public opinion to insist on the dignity and the right of political asylum being maintained intact belongs to the unequivocal republican press, and the able defence of the prisoner's counsel, Englehard. Such journals as the crafty Temps and grandmother Debats had not the courage to express an opinion. The latter did not even allude to the question, but it may in three weeks hence. This absence of virility is shameful. The Government deserves every credit for its decision, which is not only loyal but just. The Republic does not mean to play second fiddle to any martial-law Emperor or his representative of despotism; it has given Russia to understand she is outside the pale of civilization; that in the duel between palpable autocracy and the dread mystery of Nihilism there is not much of a difference; that the struggle is between Oriental barbarism veneered with civivilization, and Western culture and progress. The Comte Melikoff is by his hangings, making death attractive, and adding the aureole of the supernatural to the new Council of Ten.

France in another sense has also her two classes of society in arms, the battle field being the Senate, and the cause the ministerial bill for compelling the Jesuits and their colleges to conform to the common-law, like other religious corporations and lay institutions, and which would give the State a control over their organization, methods of instruction, and administration. The Government plainly accuses these unauthorized associations of eradicating the salutary lessons of the Revolution, and dividing the intellect of France into two hostile camps certain to end in fratricidal war. Close up their colleges and expel their professors, as did empire and monarchy, if they refuse obedience to the law, say republicans: let them be, retort adversaries, and combat them by erecting State colleges, and extend to all the right of association. Whatever way the struggle may terminate, which the hostile majority of 19 only testifies, it will have for result the inauguration of a grand agitation for the separation of Church and State, and wiseacres agree this will be the 'platform' at the next general elections. There has been such an attendance of ladies at the debate on the fortunes of the Jesuits, that in response to their charming spring toilettes, many Senators invested in coquettish wigs for their ivory heads patronised Brummel cravats and vests, and hired glasses as if 'en route' for a race course. In presence of beauty, and under the magnetism of pretty eyes, there are neither Royalists, Bonapartists, Republicans, nor Radicals—there are only troubadours.

The discussion in the Chambre des Deputies on the customs' tariffs drags its slow length along, and the 'seances' are as deserted as an 'At Home,' of Marshal Mac Mahon or Jules Simon; the protectionists if beaten on the general question, are making up for it in details, and these constitute the be-all of the matter; they are better organised than free-traders, and are ever in full force at a division. The measure in its entirety will not be as liberal as the friends of commercial freedom at one time imagined. Business has become brisk; there is much animation in the silk and cotton markets, and woollen manufacturers report rather an active trade. Financial establishments are in a satisfactory condition; they are unanimously of opinion that Egypt, with all the best intentions in the world, will not be able to meet her engagements.

The Department of Dordogne has elected two Senators, both Bonapartists, of whom one, M. Fourtou, was the soul of the abominable regime of the 16th of May, and whose violations of law and justice, accepted by MacMahon, placed France on the verge of civil war. In the few months that he applied his system of 'moral order,' he did more to demoralize and injure France than during the twenty years' reign of the Empire. In other countries such a personage would hide his diminished head: not so here; what is execrated by one political party is adored by another. The Dordogne is one of the few remaining strong holds of imperialism, but is gradually growing weak, as since the last election of Senators, the republicans have scored an increase of 107 votes—a relatively moral victory. However, the result is not the less curious, that M. Fourtou of such scandolous antecedents, finds success in the eyes of one of the richest centres of the realm, by a bare majority—the sole redeeming feature, of some 30 votes. This does not advance the prospects of Prince Napoleon, whose Tiberius features are recognised by promenaders with the most profound indifference. The presence of Cæsar does not embellish Rome.

THE IRISH CONVENT

We are informed, on perfectly reliable authority, that the first party of Nuns of the Sacred Heart will arrive here from Chile by the next Straits steamer, and that amongst them are two Irish Sisters and one North American. As soon as these are established here, it is proposed to send an additional number of Sisters from the Parent House in Paris; and we believe one of the first duties of the Sisters to arrive here next month will be the institution of an Orphanage as soon as the Convent can be adapted to that purpose.

It is to be hoped, therefore that at the meeting to be held on the 22nd current, steps will be taken and an agreement come to by which the nuns already en route may be at once placed in occupation of the Convent, with the necessary reservations of the ownership of the property stipulated in the title deeds.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Yesterday was a dull day from a newsy point of view, but meteorologically it could not be surpassed. Autumn weather in the River Plate is the nearest approach to the climate of the Garden of Eden that we know of. Political things have toned down wonderfully since the elections on Sunday, and the electioneering wind has now veered round from National matters to the scrutiny of the March elections, out of which a big row is generally expected, and being so expected, is almost certain not to occur. The French philosopher's dictum 'that the unexpected ever comes to pass' fits the River Plate more accurately than any other spot under the sun.

We advise our readers, musical or not musical, to attend to-night at the Colon Theatre, where the Quartette Society hold their 9th Public Concert and where always assemble the best representatives of both native and foreign society. The programme is published, and may be obtained at Mr. Hartmann's music store.

The steamer Portena will sail on the 24th instant, direct for Havre.

The splendid steamer Araucania, Captain Brisbane, of the Pacific S. Navigation Company, will sail from this port for Europe on the 24th inst. and not on the 18th as advertised.

Gentlemen in the contracting and building line (ladies have not yet taken to this branch) are informed that the Buenos Ayres Exhibition Commissioners have called for bids for the erection of the buildings in Plaza Mayo. For specifications, conditions etc. those interested can apply to the Secretary any day from noon till 3 o'clock p.m.

Another man wanted—Mr Hugh Sherdan or Sheridan, son of Owen Sheridan who came to this country from Scotland many years ago, accompanied by a friend named Barney Carroll and his sister. Should Mr Owen Sheridan be living and favour us with a call, we shall be happy to hand him a letter from a fair first cousin now residing in Utica, United States. We shall feel obliged for any information.

There was no steamer from Montevideo yesterday, but the latest rumour from that quarter is that ex-President Latorre has 'made tracks' for Brazil or Europe, with 2½ millions of hard gold dollars in his breeches' pocket, savings from his stipend while President of the Republic. It is no wonder the poor Colonel found the Orientales becoming 'ungovernable.' 'On dit' that the Colonel is not the only one on t'other side of Jordan who has been recommended immediate change of air by his family doctor.

Our sprightly colleague the Operario Italiano is now publishing interesting descriptions of the principal towns of Entre Rios.

Another South American fugitive has arrived in Paris—Colonel Prado, whilom President of Peru, who, as well as we recollect, also put a couple of millions of hard money in his purse before starting, with the ostensible object of investing in ironclads. Now that he is safe in Europe, the odds are the Falls of Niagara to a glass of water, or even brandy and water, that the worthy Colonel will see the folly of investing so much money in such very doubtful securities; even Peruvian Bonds would be safer.

How the eyes of Mr Bulrich, or Mr Ebbeke, or any auctioneer we know would twinkle like bright particular stars, if they got an order to sell a railway (provided it was not the Primer Entreriano) by auction. Such sales are unknown in the Plate, but not so in the United States. The new Jersey City Midland Railway was recently sold at the bar of Taylor's Hotel, Jersey City, for the benefit of the First Mortgage Bondholders. The sale was started with a bid of $1,200,000, and was run up to $2,400,000, the latter bid being offered by Mr. Jordan, cashier of the Third National Bank of Jersey City. Mr. Parsons, the chairman of the Bondholders Reorganization Committee, then bid $2,500,000, and secured the road. Oscar Keene, of Newark, N. J. Master in Chancery, conducted the sale.

The sad fate of Mr. Izquierdo, Messrs. Blanco's salesman, who was accidentally shot to death on the eve of his departure on a pleasure tour to Europe, will increase the number of superstitious folk who believe in the fatality attending '13 at table.' The unfortunate gentleman was entertained the previous day at a farewell banquet, and on perceiving that there were thirteen guests at the board, jumped from his chair and refused to continue his dinner, but was finally laughed and joked out of his notion. A mere coincidence! some will cry. Possibly, but it has occurred so often since the world began to roll, that the mass of poor, timid humanity have made a creed of it. Let the philosophers explain it away.

The Lottery scandal at Montevideo excites much interest here as well as there. The investigation now going on weighs heavily on ex-President Latorre and other members of the late Government. The Porteño asserts that nearly all the Montevidean Lottery tickets sold in this city are false, so it is better to give them a wide berth. Start the Buenos Ayres Lottery again, say we.

The thieving fraternity have now turned their attention to the vaults of the Recoleta Cemetery. Every night silver candlesticks, flowers, embroidered palls &c. disappear, and there is no account of the criminals. Are these scandals ever to come to an end?

Mr Ramon Lista, the eminent Argentine explorer, has come to conspicuous grief in Patagonia: He has been obliged to abandon his expedition, as he was unable to find a drop of water, and he and his party were on the point of perishing, not having tasted water for over two days: his mules were a week without water, and four of them (as fine animals as ever kicked a man's brains out) succumbed to the trial. Both our great explorers, Moreno and Lista, have been rather unfortunate on their last trips, from which such wonderful things were expected. Such is life.

Dr. Plaza, National Minister of Finance, will be here on his return from Villa Mercedes at the end of this week. The Rio Cuarto people gave the inauguration party a grand ball and banquet on their return: in fact they have had a rather jolly trip of it, and feel intensely grateful to all their friends in B. Ayres for not pestering them with even a single telegram about the elections: nothing disturbs a man's enjoyment of either a good dinner or a good dance so much as one of those stereotyped electioneering telegrams:—'Triunfo esplendido,' 'eleccion canonica,' 'te abrazo,' and all the rest of the balderdash.

A subscription is being raised in influential quarters to raise a monument to the late General Rivas.

The grand Palace Mart, La Ciudad de Londres, has opened a branch in Rosario. Good news for the ladies up there.

There will be a very stiff squeeze to-night in the Variedades Theatre. The new company debut, and all the young bloods in town will be there to see what the Francesitas are like.

The Provincial Government has received another offer to finish the City Improvement Works. Mr. John Videla is the bidder, but we know no particulars.

LONDON ITEMS.

March 14th.

A number of the leading Liberals of Southwest Lancashire are now here, and are in communication with the leaders of the party with respect to what should be done in that division of the county of Lancaster at the approaching general election. To-day they had a long consultation with Mr Adam, the Liberal whip, and other prominent members of the party, and the result of their deliberations is that it has been decided to bring forward two candidates in opposition to the Home Secretary and Colonel Ireland-Blackburne. The names of the candidates will be shortly announced, and it is understood that Mr Rathbone, M.P., and the Hon Mr. Molyneux are the gentlemen who have been chosen to contest the representation.

The electoral campaign in the City commenced in earnest to-day, and each party was busy at their headquarters—the Liberals in selecting a third candidate, now decided upon in the person of Mr Joseph Herbert Tritton, chairman of the Steam Navigation Company; and the Conservatives in appointing canvassers, and giving the final touches to the addresses of their representatives. In these documents the Conservative candidates, of course, promise a cordial support of Lord Beaconsfield's Administration which, they state, they should regret to see displaced by any combination actuated by the wild theories which have recently been ventilated. The Conservatives are considerably before their opponents in their preparations, which have been so far perfected as to allow of the announcement of several meetings next week.

Alderman Sir Robert Carden, the valiant knight of the Stock Exchange, nothing daunted by his recent defeat at Barnstaple, has again appealed to the electors for their suffrages. The Barnstaple election, therefore, bids fair to be one of the severest fought contests in the kingdom, and it will not be the worthy alderman's fault if the Conservatives do not win.

To-night the Lord Mayor goes down to Gravesend to make arrangements for a thorough canvass of the borough in the Conservative interest.

The generally dull little town of Darmstadt is expected to be unusually animated during the visit of her Majesty. It is stated that during the period of the Queen's stay the Emperor and Empress of Russia will take up their residence at Jugenheim for some weeks. The Duke and Duchess of Edinburgh are also expected, while the Emperor of Germany will be at Wiesbaden, within easy distance of Darmstadt. Thus arrangements promise to make the Queen's visit to Germany a sort of family gathering, which will no doubt possess immense significance in the eyes of the political critics of the Continent.

THE NEW PREMIER.

To the Editor of the Standard,

Dear Sir,

With reference to your statement that Her Majesty, according to precedent, ought to send for Lord Hartington, allow me to observe that it would be more correct to substitute for the Marquis' name that of Earl Granville, who is at present the head of the Liberal party; thus Lord Granville would have repeated an opportunity which occurred twenty-one (21) years back, when the Queen, at the instance of the late Lord Derby, first entrusted Lord Granville with the formation of an administration, a scheme which failed on account of the non-concurrence of Lords Palmerston and Russell in the arrangement. It is extremely likely that a similar result may await the amiable Earl on the present occasion, and that only Achilles himself (Mr. Gladstone) will be able to unite the most distinguished members of the party under his banner; still, combinations might carry Lord Hartington, or even the late distinguished Foreign Secretary of the Conservative party (Lord Derby) to power.

I am, dear Sir,

Faithfully yours,

Liberal.

This was a very quiet day on 'Change, and the attendance at the ring small, the cash sales only amounted to 29,800. The largest business done was for the end of May at cash prices, and for end of June at same rates. The gold market rules without the least animation, and people who hold gold find it even hard to get interest out it.

Cedulas advanced a little again to-day, closing at 85½. To-morrow is the last day to pay the int. on mortgages, and after that fine. The Bank received much money to-day.

Nat. Bonds were sold to-day at 80¼ exdiv, buyers of Buschentals offering but no business as yet reported.

Respecting the Antwerp wool auction, most of the Antwerp men say they have no advices, and some merchants think that there must be a mistake about yesterday's telegram; on the other hand it is said that this morning one exporter received a message, but the news is held up.

The gold sales were:—

For April 15th 32,900 30.60
For April 17th 25,000 30.60

The sale of 8,000 qq. of beef from the Magdalena saladeros at 49 rls. is reported, of which 2,000 qq. are from Rocca's and 6,000 qq. from Repetto's. Also the sale of 5,000 novillo hides, 68 lbs., at 52 rls. gold; and 600 pipes of tallow from Liberos' at 13 rls. gold on board. And it is rumoured on 'Change that Messrs Santa Maria and Liberos have each sold a cargo of salted hides at reserved rates.

The following dry hide sales are reported:—

600 camp at 205
200 becerros, 210
1,200 Corrientinos, 51 rls. gold
280 Tucuman, 52½ rls. gold

The sale of a lot of sheepskins at 42 rls in the South Market is reported.

Spite of the scarcity of bales, we note that the Lamport & Holt steamer Pliny took a very full cargo, the particulars of which we published this morning.

The meeting of the Camara Sindical of the Bolsa on last Monday was of more than usual importance, inasmuch as the new Committees which we have already noticed were formed and duly organized. The exporters' committee Messrs Julio Gandara, Emilio Perez, v. Ecken, and Pedro Savate. The comestible committee Messrs Ochoa, Charvat, Lutanne and Carlie. The dry goods committee Messrs Niebuhr, Forrester, Main and Arene. The iron and corralon committee Messrs Storni, Parodi, Rivas, Chas and Bui; and the saladerista committee Messrs Becker, Arias and Gonin. These gentlemen now form the legitimate Chamber of Commerce of the Bolsa. The first question that should be brought before them and at once decided is the crossed check question which admits of no delay, but which if left to the lawyer of the Provincial Bank may take years before settled. On last Saturday we hear that some of the checks that were paid were crossed, and in fact it only remains for the merchants themselves to carry the rule in force, they need the aid of no legislation.

Telegrams received yesterday from Rio 4° state that a grand banquet was given to Dr. Plaza on his return there, accompanied by Mr Fisher, the Manager of the Central Argentine Railway, Sr Achaval, Mr Melchor Rom and Sanchez. At Mercedes Dr Igarraibel, the Minister of Government, entertained Dr Plaza, and at the Colony Sampacho the colonists made a great spread and gave the Minister a hearty welcome. Yesterday the party started from Rio Cuarto to Cordoba, where they will await the Minister of the Interior.

Yesterday afternoon it was very freely reported on 'Change that there was another political hitch and that the National Guard was about to be called out, this of course, led to the purchase of gold by all those possessing superior information, but when the Bolsa opened this morning the National Guard rumour was marked as another bola.

Exchange was reported this morning at 48½ on London and 5.23 on Antwerp. Bills taken by the Banks.

Discount brokers report money getting easier and first class pagares in demand at 7 per cent paper and 6 gold. National Treasury Bills from 12 to 13. National Bank, it appears, is now discounting.

11,790 head of horned cattle
71,018 sheep
11,247 mares

These animals have been driven out for the most part to start new estancias and sheep farms, and to the partido of Olavaria alone 40,000 sheep have been driven out.

Mr Leslie laid the gas pipes from Eastman's quinta, Santa Fe Road, to the Calle Real Flores, distance 3 miles, in fifty days, being tested every day with 17 inches of pressure; and Mr Shaw states that they are technically tight, and that the work could not be better done. We congratulate Mr Leslie on the completion of this work in so very short a time.

Some of the private Banks drew to-day at 49½, but the brokers all say no takers.

The sale of 400 barrels Portland cement at 140 in lighter is reported.

All the Dutch sugar in port sold to arrive, and prices quoted at 1 m/o advance.

Coffee owing to heavy arrivals from Rio weak.

In pine no sales.

Real estate brokers report that 150,000 m/c profit have been offered to the purchaser of Mr Hoevel's house at the Cinco Esquinas.

To-day Messrs Baltar & Quesada sold the camp they had announced for sale in Rojas, namely 2½ leagues at the rate of $411,000 per league. Buyer Mr George Morgan.

Messrs Rossi & Johnson chartered the Portuguese brig Julio to load beef from Macoreta for Brazil at 4, 5, and 6 rls and 5 o/o.

From deposit 6,000 lbs. nutria skins at $10½.

Charters—

By Bonicver Levy & Co. the ital. brig Otorn to load salted hides in Gualeguay for orders at 30s.

The same firm have put on berth Lugia V, with the two-thirds of the cargo engaged.

Some proprietors of Islands in the Carapachay, finding it impossible to sell all their fruits, have opened a large fruit deposit in Calle Cangallo, where pears are sold wholesale, and very fine apples at 30 m/c per hundred. Alongside is a large tea deposit, where there is enough tea to supply the whole town. We hear that tea is dearer in London than in B. Aires.

Freights rule the same, 20s/ and 10 per cent for Antwerp, and 20 frcs and 10 per cent for Havre.

There is nothing new about Latorre or affairs in Montevideo, save that the papers down there are getting very bitter, and Latorre's quinta is offered for sale.

The two red brick houses owned by Mr Gormley, facing the Rivadavia Station, were put up at auction by Bullrich, but we have not heard if sold.

At Baltar's to-day there was a good attendance of farmers to buy the Rojas estancia.

Tattersall's fine yard in Calle Rivadavia is now to let, it was fitted up at great expense.

The invitation cards to the grand inauguration of the Rural Exhibition on Sunday were issued to-day, the affair promises to be unusually brilliant.

Advices from Paraguay report a splendid coffee crop this year, and we may expect some down soon. The Teosinte which was sent up to Paraguay has proved a great success, and the Paraguayans will soon have magnificent fields of Teosinte.

Mr Neville Fitzgerald, whose shipping office in the Boca is so well known, now supplies ship masters with printed lists of the various articles he sells, with the lowest market price marked. We recommend the matter to the attention of ship captains, who will be well served by Mr Fitzgerald.

Mr Hill, of Tucuman, was welcomed on 'Change.

At afterhours gold ruled a shade firmer; 25,000 for Saturday at 30.60, and several buyers for May and June 30/60.

Some telegrams from Havre about wool received to-day most favorable, but the news from the States was not relished, and some stand-from-under telegrams about dry hides and wool received to-day from New York. Things, it seems, have taken a turn there, and everything weaker.

The following sales reported at 4 o'clock—

1000 salt petro hides, Gualeguay, 34 lbs., 16 rls. on board.

60 pipes petro grease 48 m/o.

1500 salt ox hides, Zarate, 63 lbs., 51 rls on shore.

The Scandinavian, of the Allan line was also chartered in Havre to take River Plate wool bales to Boston, the same as Buenos Aireas.

At the Provincial Bank to-day a Committee named to report on the crossed check question:

Da E Madero
Dr Romero
Dr Malaver

It seems no law whatever is necessary to carry the point. The Bank discounted to-day 4 millions m/c.

Exchange at a dead lock this afternoon, no takers under 49½, drawers ask ⅜.

Respecting the refusal of the Rio authorities to stop Mr Ocampo's clerk in the French packet, we may remind the market that in the year 1857 Baron Maua took out of the Royal Mail Le Febre, who had obtained some exchange through fraudulent means.

The following important wool advices from the U. States we have received by the American mail:—

"The Boston market.—The market has been exceedingly active and buoyant, and the sales of domestic and foreign aggregate 4,792,600 lbs which is the largest week's operations for a long time. Domestico wool has continued to be held very firmly, with available stocks much reduced and almost entirely in dealers' hands. There has been considerable doing in washed fleece and in California, but in other lines of domestic wool the sales have been rather light, owing to limited stocks. Prices are up about 2c since our last. The principal operations, however, have been in foreign wools, of which large round lots, both on the spot and to arrive, have been absorbed by manufacturers, at an advance of some 2c over the prices current last week. The sales include large amounts of Australian, English, Montevideo and carpet. Montevideo wools have been especially sought for, and are hard to get. There is no trouble in sharply selling lots to arrive, whenever samples are on hand to be shown, as Montevideo at present prices is considered by many buyers cheaper than fleece.

"The sales for the past week, as given below, aggregate 1,481,200 lbs domestic and 3,308,400 lbs foreign, against 1,578,000 lbs. domestic and 127,600 lbs foreign for the corresponding week of 1879, 1,131,200 lbs and 6,000 lbs for 1878, and ..... lbs and ..... lbs for 1877. The total sales of domestic wools since January 1st 1880, have been 12,278,700 lbs and of foreign 11,382,950 lbs, against 9,134,400 lbs domestic and 717,100 lbs foreign for the same time last year.

"In Foreign—130,000 lbs Montevideo, to arrive, at 40c, 65,000 do, 40 to 42½c, 100,000 do, 42c; 200,000 do 40c; 40,000 do on private terms; 125,000 do 37 at 41; 40,000 do on private terms; 100,000 do to arrive, on p. t.; 68,000 Australian to arrive, 47½c; 600,000 do do 50 to 51c; 80,500 do 50 to 52c; 50,000 English, 52½c; 35,000 do, 51 to 55c; 20,000 do 52c; 35,000 do, 47½c; 8,000 do, 50c; 21,000 do 52½c; 550,000 do, 52 to 57c; 20,000 do on p. t.; 15,000 do on p. t.; 12,500 do on p. t.; 300,000 carpet on p. t.; 19,900 English on p. t; 60,000 Cape, 33c; 50,000 do, 33c; 140,000 Australian and Montevideo on p. t.; 8,500 fine South American on p. t.; 150,000 do on p. t.; 200,000 Australian to arrive, 50 to 51c. Total 3,308,400 lbs."

It is pleasant to think that there is at least one enterprise in Paraguay that gives good returns on the capital invested, and we have to thank Mr Robert Ramsey, Pres. and Mr. Theodore De Bary, Sec., for the report of their Joint Stock Company called the Markets and Deposits in Asuncion, and also the moles and tinglados, which are now incorporated with this Company. Mr Coria, who has charge of the 'Mercado Central' reports that ten thousand patacons were collected on account of the monthly payments. The gross receipts for the year were 21,870 pats, which compares favourably with the receipts of the previous year which were 18,415 pats, and the expenses have been reduced amounting only to 5,749 pats for last year, against 6,312 pats for the previous year, giving a net profit of 16,121 pats against 12,102 pats to the previous year. In the account of muelles and tinglados we also find a steady increase, the receipts being 19,160 pats against 16,727 pats for the previous year, but owing to the heavy storms in May and June the expenses have increased being 8,127 pats against 6,735 pats. The 42 per cent to the shareholders only amounts to 4,631 pats against 4,216 pats. The profits and loss account shows net earnings that allow of an 11 per cent dividend to the shareholders, of which 5 per cent paid last August and 6 per cent paid now, leaving a balance of 350 pats to be carried to the credit of the new account. The Directors speak in the highest terms of Mr Coria and his services, and ask for him a vote of thanks.
